

Security

The servers that house rileyhansen.org are maintained in a manner that safeguards the information in our databases effectively.

Personal Information

Unless you voluntarily provide us with any personal information, such as your e-mail address, this site does not collect personal information about you without your knowledge.

When you visit our site, we collect the following information: The name of the domain from which you access the Internet (for example, yahoo.com, if you are connecting from a Yahoo! account). The date and time you access our site. The Internet address of the web site from which you linked directly to our site or the Internet address of the computer used to link to our site. This information is used for Site Management purposes only.

NOTICE: Unless you choose to provide such information, we do not collect or maintain personal information about you when you visit our site. If you send us an e-mail message or complete a web form containing personal information, we collect and store the personal information which you choose to provide, such as your mailing address, e-mail address and the content of any request for information or any comments you may have.

Use of Information

If you choose to provide any personal information, such as your mailing address or phone number, we may use that information to contact you.

With whom do we share your personal data?

We do not sell or share your information with other third parties.

Cookies

What is a cookie? A cookie is a small piece of data that a website asks your browser to store on your computer or mobile device. The cookie allows the website to “remember” you, without containing any of your personal information. Most Internet browsers support cookies; however, users can set their browsers to decline certain types of cookies or specific cookies. Further, users can delete cookies at any time by clearing your cookies.

Why do we use cookies? We use cookies to learn how you interact with our content and to improve your experience when visiting our website.

What types of cookies do we use? We use both first-party and third-party cookies on this website. First-party cookies are cookies issued from the rileyhansen.org domain. Third-party cookies belong to and are managed by other parties, such as Google and Facebook.

Session Cookies: Session cookies are temporary cookies that are used to remember you during the course of your visit to the website, and they expire when you close the web browser.

How are cookies used for advertising purposes? Cookies and ad technology such as web beacons, pixels, and anonymous ad network tags help us serve relevant ads to you more effectively. They also help us evaluate performance reporting for advertisers. Pixels enable us to understand and improve the delivery of ads to you, and know when certain ads have been shown to you.

Messaging Terms & Conditions
